

A RESOLUTION OF
THE SOUTH CAROLINA REPUBLICAN PARTY STATE CONVENTION
REGARDING THE S.C. PAIN-CAPABLE UNBORN CHILD PROTECTION ACT

Passed by the Richland County Republican Party Convention – April 17, 2015

WHEREAS, its has been documented in multiple scientific studies that a child in the womb is capable of feeling pain by twenty weeks gestation; therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the South Carolina Republican Party State Convention calls upon the South Carolina Legislature to pass such legislation as would protect the lives of unborn children from twenty weeks gestation and beyond, and urge the South Carolina Senate to approved the S.C. House-passed “S.C. Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act” (H. 3114) without amendment.